2007 Macomb County Fireworks Show to be Sponsored by DaimlerChrysler Corporation Fund

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STERLING HEIGHTS - The Macomb County Parks and Recreation Commission is delighted to announce that DaimlerChrysler Corporation Fund is sponsoring the 2007 Fourth of July County Fireworks Show on Wednesday, July 4, 2007 at Freedom Hill County Park.

Because Macomb County has been experiencing a financial crunch this year's fireworks show was about to be cancelled. Thanks to the generous donation of $10,000 by DaimlerChrysler Corporation Fund the show has been saved. "We appreciate what DaimlerChrysler Corporation Fund is doing for Macomb County." Said Dino F. Bucci, Jr., president of the Macomb County Parks and Recreation Commission. "This year especially, their support and the support we receive each year from the Sterling Heights Police Department and the Macomb County Sheriff's Office will make our Fourth of July County Fireworks a spectacular celebration. We couldn't do it without them."

Macomb County and the Vietnam Veterans Chapter 154 will host a public picnic at the park with concessions and live entertainment. Everyone is invited!! The park will open at noon on Wednesday, July 4, 2007 for picnickers and the spectacular fireworks show will take place at dusk.

Admission is free. Parking is $5. Freedom Hill County Park is located at 15000 Metropolitan Parkway in Sterling Heights, Michigan, between Schoenherr and Utica Roads.
